Yaesu VX-170 Programming Steps

1. To LOCK the dial, Press the '6" Key and hold it for 1 second
2. To program, press the VFO key "#" second from right bottom row A or B will appear
3. Enter digits from keypad beginning with second digit (First "1" is assumed)
4. Set transmit power by pushing F key momentarily then push "3" Low key and turn knob to desired level which is read on LCD screen. Press PTT key briefly to exit Function mode.
5. Set Offset by pushing F then 4 RPT key and rotate bottom dial to +, - or off for simplex
6. Set PL Tone by pushing F key then 2 TONE key and rotate bottom dial to desired frequency
7. While in VFO mode after programming PL, Shift, Power, press and Hold F key for 1-2 seconds until memory number blinks.
8. Rotate bottom dial until desired memory location reached, then hold in F key "memory in" appears with beep.
9. Press PTT key briefly which returns radio to VFO mode.
10. To access menus momentarily press F key followed by momentarily 0 SET key; rotate knob to desired menu then momentarily to see values, rotate knob to change value, press F key momentarily and then push PTT key to return exit Function mode.
11. Press and Hold "1" key to toggle between Weather channels and other channels.
12. To move memory data to VFO, select memory location , press MR key momentarily then press and hold VFO key to save memory data to VFO.